

A native of Georgetown, KY, Brandon M. Northington is a proud Hampton University alumnus. Brandon graduated with honors receiving a Bachelors of Science in Business Management and a Minor in Leadership Studies.

Brandon went on to attend Florida A&M University College of Law where he received his Juris Doctorate. Brandon, presently, resides in Washington, D.C. and is a licensed attorney in the state of Maryland. He currently represents the state of Maryland as an Assistant State's Attorney.

Brandon loves serving his community as reflected this through his involvement in local church and community awareness organizations, as well as volunteering with the YMCA Teen Achievers, Teen Court, and is a big brother in the Big Brothers Big Sisters of America.

Brandon is a proud Eagle Scout and is a member of the Hampton Alumni Association, American Bar Association, Maryland Bar Association, and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

In his free time, Brandon enjoys spending time with family and friends, watching movies and a good game of spades.